

André Frieden

Global General Counsel and Corporate Secretary

André Frieden serves as the Global General Counsel for Innova Solutions, providing strategic legal guidance to the C-suite and key stakeholders across the organization, while overseeing an international legal department that supports the company's global operations. With extensive experience in technology and commercial transactions, regulatory compliance, intellectual property (IP), mergers and acquisitions (M&A), risk management, and international business, André plays a pivotal role in aligning legal strategies with business objectives. He has held prominent roles as managing counsel for global, publicly traded companies, including Capgemini, Wipro, and Wolters Kluwer, as well as leadership positions in privately held technology enterprises. Earlier in his career, he honed his legal skills at two international law firms, where he represented Fortune 100 companies, leading tech companies, research institutions, and governmental organizations on diverse transactional, regulatory, IP, and corporate matters.

André holds a Master of Laws in IP Law (LL.M.), with honors, from the University of Illinois Chicago School of Law and a Juris Doctor (J.D.) from Loyola University New Orleans College of Law. He also earned a Certificate in International Legal Studies through specialized courses at the University of Vienna School of Law and Lomonosov Moscow State University Law School and a law clerkship at the World Health Organization in Geneva, Switzerland. In addition, he holds a Master of Science (M.S.) from the University of Texas at Dallas and a Bachelor of Science (B.S.) from St. Mary's University. Prior to obtaining his higher education, Frieden trained and served as a sniper in a specialized infantry battalion.

André also has numerous publications on artificial intelligence, IP protection, software licensing, technology partnerships, bioinformatics, healthcare IT, export controls, and data privacy and cybersecurity. He frequently contributes to panels hosted by the Association of Corporate Counsel, the World Intellectual Property Forum, and other leading legal organizations. Fluent in English, French, Portuguese, and Spanish, André brings a global perspective to his work and is based in Chicago.
