

Sanjeev Sardana

Member, Board of Directors

Sanjeev Sardana is the Co-Founder of Innova Solutions and currently serves as a member on the company's Board of Directors. He offers strategic guidance and serves as a key representative and advocate for the company in its engagements with the broader financial and advisory community.

Sanjeev served as the Chief Operating Officer of Innova Solutions from 2015 to 2025. He was a driving force behind the company's transformation from a $100 million U.S.-focused talent solutions firm into a multi-billion-dollar global enterprise with a diverse suite of service lines. His leadership was pivotal in steering Innova's aggressive M&A strategy, including the successful acquisition of two publicly traded companies. Throughout his long tenure at Innova, Sanjeev has led a wide range of functions spanning service delivery, sales, technology, operations, marketing, human resources, legal, learning & development, corporate development, as well as numerous integration and restructuring initiatives.

Prior to joining Innova Solutions, Sanjeev co-founded Mobio, a mobile platform and applications development company where he was responsible for product management, applications development, fundraising, and international business development. Previously, Sanjeev has held progressively senior responsibilities in product development, product management, marketing, and corporate development in the Telecom and Financial Services industries.

Sanjeev has a B.Tech degree from the Indian Institute of Technology in Delhi, an MS degree in Computer Sciences from Washington State University, and an MBA from Columbia University.
